

George Washington University Chinese Bible Study (GWUCBS)

VISION: To share the love of Jesus Christ with Chinese students and professionals in the Washington DC area

Celebrate another baptism! Prayer meeting and farewell party for newly grad

GWUCBS started in 1994 at an apartment home by two Chinese couples and a businessman. Three years later, when attendance had outgrown the capability of the apartment, we moved regular Friday evening gatherings into Cherrydale Baptist Church. The group meets each Friday evening from 7:00 to 10:00 PM for Chinese dinner, music worship and then Bible study in small groups, both in English and Chinese. People coming to the GWUCBS are mostly students, scholars and alumni of the George Washington University and several other schools (such as Georgetown, JHU and AU, etc.) in the area and their families.

GWUCBS have regular activities such as monthly prayer meeting, New Student Welcome Party, Thanksgiving Dinner, Christmas Party, Chinese New Year Party and day trips. We help new-coming students with airport pickup and temporary housings, make friends with them and follow-up with what they need physically and spiritually. This year we have accepted about 30 new students. We promote and send people to attend Christian conferences. Each year through the group, new lives come to faith and new workers grow stronger by serving.

In the mean while, GWUCBS also supports two missionaries in China: One missionary is following up with Chinese professionals who came to Jesus in USA before returning to China; another missionary is providing much needed training to leaders of Chinese underground churches. Currently more than 40% of our fund is spent on mission support.

Prayer requests: GWUCBS is very dynamic. Our workers are young and busy with work and families responsibilities to balance. Please pray for our strength, wisdom and unity. The group is always in need of more workers. Please contact us for current opportunities to serve.

If you are called to financially support our ministry, please make check payable to "Cherrydale Baptist Church" and note "China mission" on the memo line.
